NEAR JACKSON, Madison county, Tenn., To all persons afflicted with Grarel.

Mr. J. F. Cowax:—Dear sir:—I hereby certify that in the summer of the year 1853, a sevent of mine, a boy about 19 years of age, who had always before this time een stout and of a vigorous constitution, was attacked with gravel. A Physician was called who attended on him for several months, during which time he grew worse daily, until he was helpless, and I believe would have died in a few days had it not been for a friend who advised the use of Cowan's Lithoutriptic. I pro-cured a few bottles, the first of which gave him relief, and in a short time he was able to walk about, and finally fully recovered; since which time he has had no symptoms of said disease, and to all appearance is as healthy as any servant on my plantat on. I there-fore recommend it to all persons suffering under a like disease, as one of the most certain remedies

CAUTION—Beware of Bruggists or dealers who may be benefitted. I have given both to nine children, and my life being have given birth to nine children, and my life being miraculously saved (as I consider) by your medicine testimony to its many virtues.

I used your Lithentriptic in small portions perhaps once a day, for five months, which dispelled entirely the flatulent sickness of the stomach and heart-burn which had annoyed me, to an alarming extent in all my former pregnancies. When I was con-fined I took about two wine glasses full of the same medicine, which gave me an easier deliv-ery by a great deal than 1 ever had before. Nor is this all, I have seen it tried in one case, and heard from a respectable source in another case, that your Lithou-triptic was tried in, and the Midwile with others in atattendance were thoroughly convinced that the pain of the delivery was very much lessened by its use. I would say to all my sex that expect to be mothers, not to be without your invaluable medicine during pregnancy, and particularly at the time of confinement, and it has a marked tendency to relax the system consequently the pain of labor is much diminished; and further my Physicians and Midwife both said that I had dropsy of the Womb, and I now enjoy better health than I have done in ton years, and I believe the discrete markets of the control of the pain. case is entirely removed.

Persons of Consumptive Habits,

To THE GATENBERG COMPANY: For the first time in my life I am induced to certify to the truly wonderful effects of a popular medicine, but in sending you the certificate I feel that I am only discharging a duta that I owe to the Grasfenberg Company, and more especially to suffering humanity.

About the first of June last, I had a negro man taken with a cough attouded with restlessness, spitting of blood, and other dangerous symptoms of consumption. I immediately called in a truly skillful and scientific will be disappointed; but to the sick, the weak a law spirited it will prove a grateful aromatic cordial possessed of singular remedial properties.

The great popularity of this delighabit kroma has induced many imitations, which the public shoul and said it was useless to spend money in trying to cure him.

I had previously promised the Græfenberg Agents here, (Messra Wells & Lowell,) that when the doctors gave him up I would try the Græfenberg Coussimptive's Balm. I did so and to my agreeable surprise, the man began to improve after taking only five or six dossa. He took only two bottles of the Balm and three bottles of the Græfenberg Sarsaparilia Compound, which cout me the small sum of nine dollars, and to-day I consider him entirely cored. He is worth $1,200, and he is doing me good service on the plantation. I consider him perfectly sound and well as he is fat, hearty, and strong, without a vestige or sign of disease left.
